

CANCELLATION AND RETURN CONDITIONS

1. By making an advance payment or by paying the entire participation fee, the participant confirms that he has read the Cancellation and Return Terms.
2. Vistuliada may be called-off at any time in the case of circumstances understood as force majeure (including decisions of state authorities and other institutions, war, natural disaster, strikes).
3. The reason for canceling the event may also be the lack of a minimum of participants (10 people at each section). Cancellation of Vistuliada or one of its sections due to the lack of minimum attendance may occur no later than May 1, 2020.
4. In the case of cancellation of any of the stages or the entire event for the reasons specified in point 2 and 3, the participant will immediately receive an appropriate e-mail message and the return of the advance payment or participation fee.
5. The participant may resign from participation in Vistulada, but the resignation can be made only in the form of an email or letter, with confirmation of receipt by the organizer.
6. Resignation without deductions occurs only in case another participant is substituted by the resigning person.
7. The event program depends on the attendance of participants at each of its sections, therefore, depending on the date of resignation (regardless of its reasons), the organizer may refund the registration fee minus the amount of obligations undertaken by the organizer when preparing the event program. The amount of the deduction may be up to PLN 300 for one stage and PLN 270 for each subsequent stage.
No refund will be made in case of resignations reported after June 10, 2021.
8. A refund of part of the participation fee (in the case of resignation) and the whole participation fee (in the case of cancellation of Vistuliada or its selected section) will be made within 14 days from the date of resignation or cancellation of the event, and no interest is payable on the amounts returned.
